

REMOVAL

Our friends and patrons will find us now at No. 30 Campbell Street.

With the arrival of spring our business requires more spacious and convenient quarters. These we have found with the New Book Store.

Call and see us there.

D. S. MEADOWS & CO.

War! War! War!

We have declared war in favor of our friends and intend to fight it out if it takes all the summer.

To put them on the best property is our Watchword.

To make them big money is our desire. Invest now, or you will regret it.

We have property in all parts of Roanoke, on every street and in every addition, and as cheap as any can be had.

We have also for sale a new 10-room house in Salem. Lot 60x177; beautifully located. Price $4,000. Usual terms.

This house is well built and is a big bargain.

We have also a three story brick store on College avenue, Salem, Va., two nice stores below and elegant offices above. Price $13,000. Can be rented for $3,000 a year.

This is a rare bargain. Come to see us quick if you wish a good bargain.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

J. H. Bassett, superintendent of the gas works, left yesterday in company with his son for Pottstown, Pa. Mr. Bassett was taken seriously ill shortly after his return visit a few days ago. John Dougherty has charge of the gas works during Mr. Bassett's absence.

Charles Marmaduke and family left yesterday for Sharpsburg, Md., where they will in the future reside.

There are some dangerous holes in Campbell street, east of Jefferson street, that should be looked after.

State Secretary Williams, of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia, was in Roanoke yesterday.

Justice S. W. Howerton, who has been confined to his room for several days with a severe attack of the grip, is able to be out again.

W. S. Copeland, editor of the Danville Register, stopped over in the city yesterday on his way through Southwest Virginia.

A meeting of the lady patronesses of the hospital was called for yesterday morning, but on account of the rain was postponed.

Secretary Kreh, of the Commercial Association, arrived in the city last evening after a week's visit to his former home in Fredrick.

A bright flame lit the western sky last night off to the right of the West End furnace. It was not ascertained what was burning, but from indications it appeared to be a house.

The police commissioners did not meet yesterday afternoon, owing to the absence of Mr. Scott, the president, who is attending circuit court at Salem. They will probably meet one evening this week.

Rev. J. W. Duffey, the new pastor of Trinity M. E. Church South, arrived in Roanoke last evening from Martinsburg. Rev. Mr. Duffey will preach his first sermon Sunday.

A Railroad Avenue Row.

Harry Green, a colored man, who lives over Wilmett's saloon, had a quarrel with his wife yesterday morning. They agreed to separate, and the woman made an attempt to get her clothes out of the house. Harry seized her and tore the clothes from her person and beat her with his fist. She procured a pistol and started for a warrant, but an officer seeing her with a pistol placed her under arrest. After matters were explained the mayor ordered Henry to allow his wife to get her clothing and depart. Henry accused his wife of infidelity and with harboring white men in his absence.

The Glee Club.

The Roanoke Glee Club met for rehearsal last evening at the office of Rush U. Derr, he having kindly tendered it for that purpose. The club now has a membership of about twenty, and comprises considerable talent. The meeting last night was the first that has been held for practice, the club having been organized last week. The club has started off nicely and promises to be very successful.

A Dance at the Earl House.

A dance was given at the Earl House last night by the boarders. A large number of invited guests were present, and many pretty young ladies graced the occasion by their presence. The music was excellent, and a gay time was had until a late hour.

He Will Rent Your House—Who?

J. W. Robert has opened a renting office at 118 Commerce street (with W. H. Horton) and will be glad to have you list your residence and business property with him. apr2-1wk

One very fine Knahe upright piano too expensive for this market can be bought at a great sacrifice, and one nice upright piano slightly used can be had at a big reduction. Also a large stock of fresh, new pianos and organs of the best makers at factory prices and very easy payment at the Hobbie Music Co., 108 Salem avenue, Va.; Lynchburg, Va., and Knoxville, Tenn.

Drink Virginia Brewing Company's Beer.

Everybody that sampled Virginia Brewing Company's Beer yesterday pronounced it fine.

Your Attention Just for a Moment.

We make no vain boast when we say that we can sell you a piano that cannot be excelled anywhere in the United States or any other country. We have on exhibition and for sale the following celebrated instruments: The Steck, Decker Bros., Weber, Everett, Cornett and various other kinds, any of which cannot fail to give the best satisfaction, and are fully warranted. We can please you both in price and quality, and in order to convince you just call and see. We can save money for those who wish to purchase, as we buy direct from the factory. The desirable qualities in all the above makes need no eulogy from us; and through them we hold that above all others we can sell you "an honest piano at an honest price."

We also keep constantly on hand four or five different kinds of organs of the very best makes, which we offer on terms to suit and at prices that defy competition. If you want an instrument of any kind call to see us before purchasing elsewhere. Respectfully, mar12-1mo M. L. SMITH.
